

The CABJ is looking for directors to oversee programming in the Atlantic and Central regions and in the province of Quebec. These individuals would serve on the current executive effective Fall 2021.

Responsibilities:

- Plan, develop and oversee all aspects of CABJ programming in your designated region
- Attend all monthly CABJ Executive meetings;
- Reach out to current, prospective and former members in their region;
- Engage with newsroom leaders and journalism schools to discuss implementation of the CABJ/CJOC Calls to Action (summary here)
- Handle media interviews upon request;
- Assist in drafting and releasing statements and organizational messaging;
- Participate in fundraising activities as required

Directors will also help build new relationships and strengthen existing partnerships to further grow the CABJ programs listed below:

- a) CABJ Connects (see the following document for details);
- b) J-School Noire (here's a blog, and here's a more detailed summary);
- c) CABJ On Campus;
- d) CABJ Media Startup Bootcamp

Qualifications:

About the CABJ

Founded in 1996, the Canadian Association of Black Journalists' (CABJ) mission is to increase representation through education and inspiration. We believe Black journalists must work together to diversify newsrooms, to increase the number of Black media professionals in management positions in Canada and to educate and inspire a new generation of young Black journalists.

As the CABJ works towards extending its reach across Canada, we are focused on:

Advocating for diversity in Canadian media

Increasing CABJ's membership base in regions across Canada

Raising up a new generation of Black journalists and content creators

Offering hands-on workshops and other diverse professional development opportunities to Black journalists and content creators